Fantasy Akhada: A Structural Evidence Review

Document class: Independent research memorandum Prepared for: Internal review, board-level or investment-committee use Subject entity: Fantasy Akhada (Super Six Sports Gaming Private Limited) (fantasyakhada.com, not resolving at the reference date) Data reference date: 20 September 2026 Generated by: triNetra Research Methodology source: Independent public-source evidence review, reproducible by any researcher using the same public sources Author status: Independent researcher. No affiliation with Fantasy Akhada, its investors, or the reviewing organization. Distribution note: This document is a public-source evidence review. It does not constitute legal, regulatory, medical, or investment advice.

> METHODOLOGICAL NOTE > Every substantive sentence carries one tag: VERIFIED FACT, OBSERVED PATTERN, INTERPRETATION, or LIMITATION. Factual tags cite a numbered entry in References. Sources are ranked by tier, dead links are recorded as limitations, and republished press releases are not counted as independent evidence. LIMITATION marks a gap in this review and is never a finding about the company. Nothing here is a legal, regulatory, or investment conclusion.

1. Purpose and Scope

This memorandum collects what public sources say about Fantasy Akhada, a fantasy sports brand in India, and how well each claim can be traced to a primary record. [OBSERVED PATTERN] The public record is dominated by commercial data aggregators and 2023 funding coverage, with little primary company material still reachable. [3][7][1]

The scope covers corporate background, product claims, quantitative claims, registry identity, AI oversight, claims language, and incident documentation. [VERIFIED FACT] The operating entity behind the brand is Super Six Sports Gaming Private Limited. [1][2]

2. Evidence Base and Reliability Ranking

Rank	Source type	Availability for this subject
1	Government and regulatory filings	Not directly retrieved. The text of the 2025 online gaming statute is summarised by secondary sources only. [4][5]
2	Primary company publications	Unavailable. The brand domain did not resolve at the reference date.
3	Sector registries	Not found for this subject.
4	Commercial registry mirrors (MCA, Zauba, Tofler and equivalents)	Partly available through Tracxn and TheCompanyCheck, which reproduce registry fields. [2][3]
5	Independent journalism	Available for the 2023 funding round and a founder profile. [1][6]
6	Marketing and self-description	Available through interviews and podcast pages. [10]

3. Corporate Background

[VERIFIED FACT] Entrackr reported in March 2023 that Super Six Sports Gaming Pvt. Ltd, parent of Fantasy Akhada, raised 11 million US dollars in a round led by Florintree Advisors, with Param Capital's Mukul Agrawal and Varalakshmi Enterprises also participating. [1]

[VERIFIED FACT] The same report lists an earlier 2 million dollar pre-Series A in September 2021 and total equity funding above 20 million dollars. [1]

[VERIFIED FACT] The report names Amit Purohit, Amit Bhardwaj, Ankit Upreti, Pratik Gosar, Sumit Jha and Sahil Ahuja as founders and places the company in Gurugram. [1]

[OBSERVED PATTERN] Aggregators disagree on the founding year: the brand is described as founded in 2020 in journalism, while Crunchbase-style profiles give 2019, matching the incorporation date in registry mirrors. [1][2][8]

[INTERPRETATION] The gap is consistent with a company incorporated in late 2019 that launched its consumer brand in 2020, though no source states this directly. [2][1]

4. Product Claims: Evidentiary Basis

[VERIFIED FACT] Funding coverage describes the platform as offering fantasy cricket, football and kabaddi. [1]

[VERIFIED FACT] Tracxn lists associated brands as Super Six Sports, Fantasy Akhada, VUSport and FanToPark. [2]

[OBSERVED PATTERN] The 2023 use-of-funds statement mentions a planned brand for sports streaming, content and analytics, which suggests a move beyond the core fantasy product. [1]

[LIMITATION] Product pages, app store listings and terms of service could not be retrieved, so current product scope cannot be confirmed. [2]

[LIMITATION] One low-tier website states that the platform always offered only free or non-cash games. This claim conflicts with the earlier fantasy sports positioning and with the registry-linked revenue figures, and it is not relied on here. [9][3]

5. Quantitative Claims and Traceability

[VERIFIED FACT] Mirrors of registry data report FY 2025 revenue of about 31.32 crore rupees, a decline of 38 percent on the prior year. [3][2]

[VERIFIED FACT] Headcount is given as 52 by one mirror and about 79 by another. [2][3]

[OBSERVED PATTERN] The two mirrors disagree on employee count, and one shows a net profit figure of 6,531 crore rupees for FY 2025, which is implausible against 31 crore of revenue and is treated as a data error. [2][3]

[OBSERVED PATTERN] Interview material describes the platform rising from the 181st fantasy app to the top five and reaching over one lakh fans, with no audit or methodology attached. [10]

[LIMITATION] Audited financial statements were not retrieved from the registry, so mirror figures remain unconfirmed at primary level.

6. Corporate Identity and Registry Verification

[VERIFIED FACT] Mirrors list CIN U72900HR2019PTC083570, incorporation on 14 November 2019, status Active, and a registered office in Urban Square, Sector 62, Gurgaon, Haryana. [2][3]

[VERIFIED FACT] Directors listed are Sumit Kumar Jha, Amit Purohit and nominee director Akshay Lalit Jogani. [2][3]

[VERIFIED FACT] One mirror reports no open charges and DPIIT startup recognition. [3]

[VERIFIED FACT] Tracxn shows shareholding of founders at 28.76 percent, angels at 30.64 percent, enterprises at 16.30 percent and funds at 1.55 percent. [2]

[LIMITATION] Direct MCA master data was not retrieved, and mirror status dates may lag the registry.

7. Artificial Intelligence Component: Oversight Documentation

No AI component is claimed in the sources reviewed, and no oversight documentation exists to assess. [LIMITATION] The 2023 statement about analytics products does not specify any automated decision system. [1]

8. Claims Language and Regulatory Positioning

[VERIFIED FACT] The Promotion and Regulation of Online Gaming Act, 2025 was passed by Parliament in August 2025 and prohibits online money games, whether skill-based, chance-based or both, including fantasy sports played for money. [4][5]

[VERIFIED FACT] Secondary summaries state that the prohibition took effect in October 2025 and led operators such as Games24x7 and Junglee to shut or scale back Indian operations. [5][11]

[OBSERVED PATTERN] Fantasy Akhada's founder interview positions the product as a game of skill, a framing that the Act makes legally immaterial for money games. [6][5]

[INTERPRETATION] The 38 percent revenue decline in FY 2025 precedes the Act's effect, so it cannot be attributed to it from these sources. [3][4]

[LIMITATION] No source confirms whether the company halted paid contests, moved to non-money formats, or ceased operations after the Act. This review draws no regulatory conclusion.

9. Incident and Safety Protocol Documentation

[LIMITATION] No grievance officer notice, responsible gaming policy, or terms of service were retrievable because the brand domain does not resolve.

[LIMITATION] No payout dispute, consumer forum decision or regulator action naming the company was found in the searches run. Absence in search results is not evidence of absence.

10. Summary Table

Section	Evidence available	Independently verifiable	Status
Corporate and funding facts	2023 funding report, registry mirrors	Partly, via journalism	Established
Product and service claims	Funding coverage only	No	Open
Quantitative performance claims	Mirror revenue, interview claims	Partly	Open
Corporate identity and registry	CIN, directors, status via mirrors	Partly	Established
AI oversight documentation	None	No	Unassessed
Claims language positioning	Founder interview, statute summaries	Partly	Monitoring item
Incident and safety protocol	None retrieved	No	Unassessed

This table reflects public documentation as of the reference date and is not a composite score.

11. Limitations

1. The brand domain fantasyakhada.com and the www variant did not resolve, so no primary company material was reviewed.
2. Registry data came from commercial mirrors, not MCA directly.
3. Mirror figures conflict on headcount and include an implausible profit value.
4. Post-Act operating status is undetermined.
5. Statute text was read through secondary summaries.
6. Web search coverage is limited to indexed pages.

12. Reproducibility Notes

Toolchain: a general web search engine and a page fetcher, with no proprietary data.

1. Search the brand name with the founder name and read the March 2023 funding report.
2. Search the parent entity name to reach the registry mirror pages and note the CIN.
3. Compare fields across at least two mirrors and record disagreements.
4. Attempt the brand domain and record the resolution result with the date.

5 Read secondary summaries of the 2025 Act and note the effective date.

6 Search for consumer complaints and regulator notices naming the entity.

7 Tag each sentence by evidence tier and cite it.

13. Evolution Opportunities

1. Pull MCA master data and FY 2025 filings directly to settle the revenue, headcount and profit conflicts (high impact, low cost).
2. Publish a dated statement of current operating status and product scope under the Act (high impact, low cost).
3. Restore a reachable domain or notice page with a grievance contact (medium impact, low cost).
4. Publish a responsible gaming and payout policy archive (medium impact, medium cost).
5. Document the basis of user-base claims with a stated method (medium impact, medium cost).

14. Future Questions

1. What is the company's operating status and product scope after the Act took effect?
2. Do the audited FY 2025 and FY 2026 accounts match the mirror figures?
3. Why does the brand domain no longer resolve?
4. Were user balances settled at any wind-down or change of format?
5. How do the VUSport and FanToPark brands relate to the current business?
